Father Theodore Dorrance

Fr. Theodore Dorrance has a Bachelor of Science in Business from the University of Colorado at Boulder. He converted to the Orthodox faith in college and received a Masters of Divinity from Holy Cross Greek Orthodox School of Theology in Boston. He was ordained in 1991 and served at two different parishes before moving to Portland, Oregon in 1997. In Portland, Fr. Theodore started a brand new mission parish, and it has grown steadily over the last fourteen years.

Fr. Theodore currently serves on the Metropolis of San Francisco's Commission for Outreach, Missions & Evangelism (COME), and the San Francisco Metropolis Council. He is a founder and board member of Oregon's only Orthodox Christian school, Agia Sophia Academy, and is the San Francisco Metropolis Vicar of the Northwest. Fr. Theodore regularly leads retreats around the country on Stewardship, Orthodox spirituality and various other topics.

Father is married to Presvytera Aspasia and they have three daughters and a son. In addition to building up the Parish and serving the greater Church, Father keeps busy with his four children, supporting Agia Sophia Academy and ministering to other clergy-families. For recreation, Fr. Theodore enjoys fly-fishing and exploring the great outdoors in the Pacific Northwest.
