Presenter: Richard Whitton, CPA, MBA, ChFC, CFP®, & founder of RWW Financial Consulting, an Oregon-registered financial planning and investment advisory firm.

Mr. Whitton has a BA in Economics from UCLA, a MBA from Claremont Graduate School, and 15 years of experience in Financial Planning. He earned his CPA designation working with KPMG (a Big Four accounting firm), specializing in the private sector and small business division. After KPMG, he worked for a number of years as a divisional controller, a chief financial officer, and as a financial consultant. Feeling the need to move away from the commissions-based model of the day, he started his own company in Oregon in 2003.

Richard is an active member of St. John the Baptist Greek Orthodox Church, where he served as Treasurer on the Parish Council. The goal of this workshop is to discuss budgeting from a Christian perspective and learn how to apply these basic budgeting skills to your family finances.
