

The V. Rev. Fr. Gregory Horton is the pastor of Holy Myrrhbearing Women (Antiochian) Orthodox Mission in Bonners Ferry, Idaho.

www.holymyrrhbearingwomen.org

He and his wife, Khouria Cindy, and 4 children came to settle in the Pacific Northwest and founded the St. John the Baptist Antiochian Orthodox Church in November of 1995. Fr. Gregory's mission work in Bonner and Boundary Counties, Idaho, began in earnest in the years 2005-2006. In August of 2007 the Hortons moved to begin their full time work in Bonners Ferry, finally completing a beautiful temple consecrated by His Eminence Archbishop JOSEPH the weekend of the Holy Myrrhbearers in May 2011.

As Fr. Gregory writes, "Our humble parish still serves families from as far away as Orofino, Idaho (about 3-4 hours away) and Creston, British Columbia (a little over two hours away). Missionary work to these and other outlying areas remains one of our main priorities as we seek to glorify God in this little corner of the world!"

Fr. Gregory and Khouria Cindy now have 4 grown children, and 3 adopted school age daughters from Guatemala.
