OF BYZANTINE ICONOGRAPHY
PRESENTS

A Lenten Journey through Liturgical Art -
Writing the Holy Icon:

Η Ύψωση του Τιμίου και Ζωοποιού Σταυρού
“THE EXALTATION OF THE HOLY AND LIFE-GIVING CROSS”

A Four-Day Iconography Workshop
in Newberg, Oregon

April 1st – April 4th, 2016

This workshop will be held on Friday, Saturday, Sunday and Monday and coincides with the 3rd Liturgical Sunday of Lent, “The Veneration of The Holy Cross”. The prototype chosen (see detail below) is simple yet highly symbolic and is accessible to beginning and intermediate level students. The workshop is open to those with or without artistic experience.

Greek Byzantine technique will be taught through demonstration step-by-step, on an easel placed before the students by master instructor, Magdalene Grace Deane. Included in the course are teachings on iconography history, method, theology and askesis (to enhance a prayerful lifestyle).

You are invited to experience a holy setting where fasting and prayer are encouraged for the duration of the classes. Each participant will receive a prepared wooden icon panel, brushes/pencil, tracing pattern, gilding material and natural pigments for hand-formulated egg tempera paints.

Cost: $400

You may Register & Reserve a Work Station by Phone, Post or Email

A deposit of $100 is required at registration with balance due on the first day of the workshop.

Please note that deposits are non-refundable. Upon registration you will receive a Workshop Packet with studio address, directions and other preparation information.
