

A Christian Ending to Our Life...

..blameless, painless, and peaceful and for a good account of ourselves
before the awesome judgment seat of Christ,
let us pray to the Lord.

- Over 90% of people surveyed believe that it's important to talk about their loved ones' and their own wishes for end-of-life care.
- Less than 30% of people surveyed have actually discussed what they or their family wants when it comes to end-of-life care.
- 70% of people surveyed say they prefer to die at home.
- 70% of the population die in the hospital, a nursing home or long-term care facility.
- 82% of people surveyed say it's important to put their wishes in writing.
- *23% have actually done it.

One conversation can make all the difference.

A presentation & workshop on how you might start a conversation to make your wishes for end-of-life care known to family & loved ones
– or how to help someone else start a conversation.
